

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 23, 1955

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I greatly appreciate your courtesy in sending me the transcript of Molotov's speech, and I read it with a great deal of interest.

For my own amusement I checked certain repetitions in the speech in terms of specific references or use of words which may be of interest to you.

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 1. United States, America or an American person | 110 |
| 2. Socialists or Socialism | 42 |
| 3. Communist governments as Democracies or Democratic | 47 |
| 4. Peace, peaceful, and peace-loving | 67 |

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Dodge

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.